Champion & Reserve

WP & E Riding, Heapey, Chorley, Lancs were triumphant at Gisburn auction marts first suckled calf show of the season on Saturday 20 October. Taking the championship and first prize rosettes in the heifer class was Messrs Riding's six month old British Blue, which sold for £910, however, out of their consignment of eleven suckled calves forward from this vendor which averaged £750, it was their third prize winner in the heifer class that topped the suckled calves prices at £920, another British Blue, this time five months old which sold to Matt Townsend, Laneshaw Bridge, Lancs who also picked the third prize steer for £855 from David Capstick, Swinden Moor, Hellifield, Skipton, North Yorkshire.

Mrs Bailey, Church, Accrington had a successful day when she collected reserve champion and first prize rosettes in the steer class with her British Blue, which sold for £900. A regular audience in the store section saw consistently keen bidding throughout the sale with British Blue steers to £1120, Aberdeen Angus heifers to £910. Gisburn Auction Marts next suckled calf show and sale will be held on Saturday 17 November.

A first class entry of pedigree heifers met a strong trade at Gisburn Auction Marts Pedigree Dairy cattle sale on Thursday 18 October, sponsored by Cogent Breeding, due to dairy farmers struggling to meet their milk targets, a result of the continued bad weather and poor quality silage. Regular vendor Colin Singleton, Goosnargh, Preston took the champion rosette with a smart black heifer, sired by Cogent Loader giving 36 litres, she was later purchased for £2550 by the judge Doug Graves, Carlisle. Jeremy Taylor, Broughton, Skipton, picked up the second prize rosette, with his heifer sired by LA Presentation Denzel and giving 36 litres, she sold for £2450 to Wallbank Farms Ltd, Over Wyresdale, Lancaster who also picked up A Bretherton & Sons, Whitechapel, Preston impressive heifer at £2350. WA Booth, Feizor, Austwick, Lancaster won the newly calved cow class, again sired by Cogent Loader and giving 40 litres she went to David Coulthurst, Goosnargh, Preston. Pedigree in calf heifers from H & CN Gardner, Great Plumpton, Kirkham, Lancaster sold to £1700 for a Ked Outside Jeeves sired heifer, they later averaged £1600. The regular weekly sale was topped by JG Hall & Son, Gargrave, Skipton, North Yorkshire selling their commercial newly calved heifer at £1900 to David Coulthurst. Young stock were slower to sell with bulling heifers topping at £700 from J & SA Lancaster and heifer calves to £370
