A new auction market record price of £900 was set for calves on Thursday at Gisburn Auction Marts Christmas rearing calf show and sale, beating the previous record of £675 set by Colin Whitelock, Gargrave, Skipton, North Yorks., in May this year. The six week old British Blue bull calf, from Stephen Fawcett, Drebley, Barden, Skipton, North Yorks., which had earlier in the day picked up first prize rosette in the British Blue Bull class and finally the overall champion calf award, sold following a flurry of bids, from the packed ring side to beef farmer, Malcolm Campbell, Horton in Ribblesdale, Settle, North Yorks., concluding in a round of applause. Presented to a very high standard and shown by Mr Fawcett's daughter Sammy she said "We knew this calf was special, but we never expected him to achieve a record breaking price!" The pre-sale show, co-judged by North Yorkshire livestock agents Richard Umpleby and Robert Foster, commented "The quality of British Blue calves forward was high, but this shapely calf was the dear winner – he certainly had thickness and shape." Next best in the bidding stakes, was first prize British Blue heifer, again belonging to Mr Fawcett, sired by the same homebred bull as the champion, the hammer this time fell at £530 to Malcolm Bayes, Lockington, Driffield, East Yorks. Roger Vickery, Billington, Clitheroe, Lancs., achieved £470 for his British Blue bull calf –unplaced in the show ring, selling for a very respectable price to John Swann, Little Ouseburn, York, North Yorks., who also purchased the reserve champion and second prize British Blue bull from AA & E Critchley & Son, Hutton, Preston, Lancs., out of a third lactation Holstein Friesian cow sired by Fertility Plus Genus at £460. Last year's Christmas show winner Trevor Hodgson, Dent, Cumbria was unable to repeat his success of last year in the show ring, though unplaced in the judging his British Blue bull calf, was snapped up at £450 by Peter Lambert of Bedale Calf Supplies & Famers, Bedale, North Yorks. Mr Lambert also purchased the first and second prize rosette winners in the other bull class, a pair of Charollais at £448 & £432 from Sawley, Clitheroe based dairy farmers G & M M Dakin & Sons. A total of 241 calves were forward, with 27 achieving £400 or more.
