Prime hoggs met a strong trade today, hitting a top price of 277p/kg or £119 per head from DN &amp; D Capstick, B by Bowland, Clitheroe, Lancs., and an overall average price of 215p/kg or £85 per head. Jonathan Turner, auctioneers, commented on the day trade "Sharp trade today with many more hoggs required to meet buyer's demands-with 7 plus buyers in attendance, demand very strong indeed. All export type hoggs in the 37kgs to 43kgs weight bracket were 215p/kg to 230p/kg without fail. Mule Hoggs averaging 207p/kg or £40 - £45 over their weight. Horned hoggs again good to sell at 187p/Kg average or £89.50 top." Cast ewes again met an increased trade with horned ewes selling especially well, Texel ewes to £106 per head and Mules again increased on the week up to £70 per head.

YOUNG FARMERS from Cheshire, Cumbria, Lancashire and Yorkshire, took part in Gisburn Auction Marts Cattle Over Wintering competition. The competition, the very first in the area, gave young people the opportunity to purchase cattle at Gisburn Auction Marts in the autumn of last year and feed them through the winter and offer them for show and sale last Saturday. Twenty one year old, Clare Cropper, Long Preston, Skipton, North Yorks., was crowned overall winner, with her nine month old, Limousin cross steer, purchased last autumn for £640. Miss Cropper's beast also picked up the best profit margin award achieving a gross profit margin of £425, along with the award for the best male animal shown by competitor aged 17-27 years. Nidderdale Young Farmer's club member, Sarah Whitley, whose family have a pig, sheep and dairy farm at Summerbridge, Harrogate, North Yorks., picked up an array of awards, which included the reserve champion, best live weight gain at 1.33kg per day and best presented animal shown by a competitor 12-16 years old. With her British Blue cross bull calf which was purchased at Gisburn Auction Marts autumn rearing calf show in October 2012. Miss Whitley is no stranger to the show ring, last year she won the Gloucester Old Spot Northern Area championship at the Great Yorkshire show and tutored Kirstie's Allsop on how to show a pig for her TV series 'Kirstie's Handmade Britain.' Fifteen year Slaidburn young farmer's club member and Bowland High School pupil Rachel Harrison won the best male animal shown by a competitor aged 12-16 years old, with her 17 month old Limousin steer, presented to the highest possible standard which behaved impeccably in the show ring. Miss Harrison is well known on the local agricultural show circuit with her Jacob sheep. However, this competition provided her the perfect platform to move on to cattle, in which she excelled, achieving a gross margin profit of £330. The show was kindly supported by Gisburn Young Farmers club, with club members acting as show stewards and kindly providing the Best Young Farmers Club members trophy, which was won by the farthest travelled competitor, seventeen year old, Henry Heath, a member of Beeston Castle Young Farmers Club, Cheshire who impressed the pre-sale show judges, beef show guru, Keith Harryman, Keswick, Cumbria and prime cattle buyer, Katrina Donaldson, Huby, York with his knowledge and stockmanship. The best female animal shown by a competitor aged 12-16 years old was hotly contested by a quartet of Settle College pupils, with twelve year old Abigail Fawcett, Long Preston, Skipton, North Yorks., picking up the first prize rosette, beating elder brother Matthew, who took the second prize rosette. Thirteen year old Coniston Cold Young Farmer's Club member, Robert Capstick, achieved third with his Limousin heifer, which left him a gross margin profit of £330. Fourteen year old Ryan Hewitt, Stainforth, Settle, picked up a respectable fourth place rosette in this large class of competitors. Jane Chapman, show and sale organiser, said "The aim of the show was to encourage the next generation of farmers, to buy and sell cattle through the live auction ring and to gain experience and business skills in the art of showmanship in the tasks of selection, feeding and presenting animals for show and sale and it certainly did that-with all competitors working really hard to present their cattle to the highest possible standard."

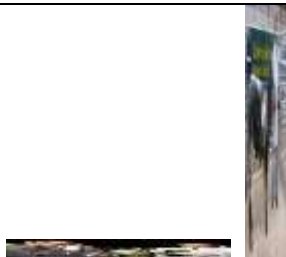

Judges: Keith Harryman & Katrina Donaldson. Show Steward: Andrew Robinson

Early Spring Ewes with Lambs at Foot Show & Sale

Champion Ewes & Lambs Chris Craven

Reserve Champion Ewes & Lamb Chris Craven

CHRIS CRAVEN'S long journey from York to Gisburn Auction Marts on Saturday proved fruitful, when he won both the champion rosette at the early spring show and sale of ewes with lambs at foot. The champion pen, picked by pre-sale show judge Brian Wise was a pair of Texel ewes with smart Texel lambs at foot sold for £205. Mr Craven also took the reserve champion award with another pair of Texel ewes with Texel lambs winning himself an Edward Thornber lamb adopter. Top price of the day-£208 was achieved by hill sheep and beef farmer, Richard Caton, Stainforth, Settle, North Yorks., with a pair of three shear Texel ewes with single Beltex ram lambs at foot. Richard Mawson, Addingham, Ilkley swept the board in the Mule section achieving £180, £178 & £172 for shearlings with twin Texel lambs at foot. Auctioneer, Rachel Capstick, commented "a total of 132 ewes with 210 lambs forward with noticeably increased demand for correct double outfits generally selling in the £150-£200 price bracket, with singles less money, depending on age." The in lamb section was dominated by David Coulthurst, Goosnargh, Preston who sold a Texel shearling ewes carrying triplets for £200. Other quality sheep from the same vendor found pastures new int £150-175 range. Swaledale gimmer hogs from Ivan Tattersall, Edgworth, Bolton sold to a high of £82. Decent fleshed store hogs regularly achieved £60 plus topping at £73. Longer term hogs generally sold in the late £40's. Pet lambs sold to £18
