Regular venders enjoyed a sharp trade prior to Fred & Margaret Parkinson's dispersal with a large crowd of buyers and several new faces at the ringside. Rachel Lund topped the trade selling a strong 33lt heifer to Doug graves at £2220.00 Not far behind was Joe & Robert Holden 6.5 gal heifer selling at £2080.00 to Redmaynes of Samelsbury Bargain hunters were disappointed with all types selling to a respectable trade.

In Calf heifers from Hardcastles sold to Shuttleworth's at £1630 and two longer dated heifers in calf to sexed seaman selling at £1400 and £1480. Dispersal cattle were easily sold with cows giving over 40 lt either side £1500 and some lovely heifers up to £2300.

Watch out for the rest of Fred's heifers coming as they calve.

Next week is Dugdale Nutrition show with 40 to 50 expected.

James and Anne Rogerson set the pace in the pedigree sector with a comestar Lavanguard heifer selling at £3100 to William Oldfield. This was a super heifer that caught the eye of several local pedigree breeders who were prepared to pay for the right animal. The Rogersons also won the cow class selling at £2250 also to William Oldfield. The champion came from Philip and Margaret Critchley and was claimed by regular Carlisle buyer Doug Graves for £2200.. Out of 28 pedigree entries 9 made £2000 or more. As predicted there was a full shippin with all entries in the pedigree catalogue forward. Vendors were prepared for a rough ride after reports that trade was tough but with a full compliment of buyers, prices were better than most had hoped for. Top price commercial heifer came from Rachel Lund at £2000 to Tom Shuttleworth of Rylstone with other heifers from Richard Close and David Tatham at £1900. A group of 18 Holstein stirks from Nick & Emma Parker of Silsden met a keen group of heifer rearers looking to top up their no's selling to 960 and 920 for two heifers ready to serve and up to 750 for yearlings. Next week is Fred and Margret Parkinson's dispersal following the regular dairy entry-Catalogue on website.

Auctioneers comment: A few less lambs about this morning providing a good trade on the day where more lambs could have been sold to vendors advantages. A full compliment of buyers present resulted in an overall average very similar to last weeks trade of 174p/Kg. Best lambs still over the £2 mark with several pens selling above this topping at 213p/Kg from J P Barnes, Sawley. Comercially bred lambs 40Kg to 42Kg selling at £68 - £74 regular away depending on quality and finish. Mule wether lambs starting to show their presence at around £25 over their weight. Ewes less in numbers this week for one reason or another showing a very similar trade to last week.
