Today was dispersal day in the dairy shippon with cattle on offer from five vendors who have decided 18ppl is no longer a viable option. Top four prices came from a group of 12 from E Nowell & Son Bashall Eaves, which were an honest and tidy mix of heifers and young cows. They topped at £1810 with three others over £1700 making a respectable average of £1484. Shorthorn X cattle always attract interest with Travis of Lupton topping £1000 twice. Next week is Dugdale's Show when we expect 40+ milkers and some young stock.

No let up in demand for continental calves. Angus and Herefords were in short supply today, but all sold extremely well. Less black and whites about today and certainly far more of the bottom end sorts, but better types regularly £100-£140. Next Thursday is stirk week following the calves – would vendors please ring the office 01200 441351 with anticipated entries.

3 sheep dogs started proceedings on Saturday. Two 16 week olds, the bitch sold for £140 and her brother £120. Next a part trained 6 month old dog at £200.

Just one pen of ewes returned home unsold, but it took a good ewe to make £90 – most sold in the £70s to £80s. Plenty of interest in the shearlings, but at a price. Well grown gimmers of all breeds in the £100-£120 bracket and an odd pen of pure Texels at £215. Smaller types generally £90s and virtually a total clearance.

All gimmer lambs presented were sold. Most Texels just shy of £60, but better sorts to £70. Mule gimmers all away to average just over £75.

Store lamb trade was better than expected with some nice pens competing in the August store lamb show, kindly judged by Andrew and Jennifer Hutchinson. Results:

Champion & 1 st prize continentals	J Pendlebury	£69.00
Reserve & 2 nd prize continentals	K A Purtil	£67.50
1 st Prize natives	A R Beckerton	£57.50
2 nd & 3 rd prize natives	S Duckworth	£60.00 & £59.00

Next Saturday 29th, Bank Holiday weekend is a sheep and machinery sale and includes the annual first show and sale of Mule Shearlings.

A great show of pedigree and commercial milkers today and some smart young stock at the end of the sale. Regular vendor Lee Donkin took the Cogent prize and sold for top price of £2010 to Wick Williams. First prize pedigree cow come from John Dugdale, Borrins Farm and sold at £1840 to Tom Green of Wigan. Trade was better than expected with most 30lt heifers from £1700 to £1800. Others in the money were Jeremy Taylor at £1910 and D & S Graveston at £1790. Top price commercial heifer from Rachael Lund selling at £1690 to John Dodgson. Recently served heifers from Jennifer Layfield averaged £950 and Montbeliarde X in calf heifers made to £960. Heifer calves were slightly less money topping £300 from D & LM Cowgill.

Next week we have a group of dispersal cows and heifers from E Nowell & Son Bashall Eaves (approx 15)

A much lighter show with 28 on offer but a very different trade to last week. The top trade belonged to Malcom b Fell who continues to bring top quality cattle and has built up a strong customer base, his 32ltr heifer sold at £2100 and his 2nd calf cow at £1850 both going to Dave Coulthurst. The best of the rest were E Armer at £1640 and D Tatham at £1580 and £1550. Lighter heifers could be bought either side of £1000.

Next week is Cogent Pedigree Week and the following week includes the start of a local dispersal with approx 12 extra cows and heifers.

With rain forecast for Thursday night and Friday and a lot of grass down, calf numbers were not as high as they should have been for the time of year with just 153 forward. Trade for all breeds however was fast and furious! 82 of the calves were dairy males, which ranged from £25 to £270, but the majority were in the £100-£150 bracket.

Most of the Continentals were young fresh calves and were a dream to sell as were Angus and Herefords. We predict a much larger entry next week and expect heifer calves from TB 4s to be an exceptional trade.

Today was not stirk week, but the eight that turned up all sold very nicely. Next week we expect 50+ stirks to follow the calves and would encourage vendors to ring in with entries by Tuesday, so that buyers can be informed.

As predicted a full shippin of milkers on offer today and an exceptional show of young cows. Trade continues to surprise everyone and some of our regular buyers had good orders to fill. Top spot in the heifer class went to W A Booth, Feizor selling at £2,000 to NW & Mrs JM Coulthurst and their 2nd lactation cow made £1850 to Hill & Davies, Wrexham. J D Taylor & Son was in the money at £1900 and £1880 and regular vendor MJ Fell Ltd at £2000, £1980 and £1800 and regular vendor Michael T Fish had top price commercial at £1880. As was the case last week only the lighter weight heifers struggled.

The quality and choice today was a credit to all the vendors. Next week we expect 40+ milkers. Young bulling heifers from R & J Layfield made to £680 and young heifer calves from D & L Cowgill to £370.
